

Creative drawing with mittie!!

Mittie Cuetara is a professional writer/illustrator and cartoonist. Join her for a class of drawing in a non-competitive environment. Drawing helps develop abilities in academic areas, as well as improving focus and concentration. Each week she presents a different topic using guided drawings. Mittie encourages creativity in her developmentally appropriate lessons and incorporates the interests of the children.

Mittie is an illustrator of children's books. Her website is www.mittiecuetara.com.

Creative Drawing Projects!

Each class we'll have a new FUN drawing project designed to integrate skill development and creative brainstorming while really having a good time. Projects include "The Candy Bar Project" and "Stuffed Animal Stories." Only requirement is a love of drawing.

Day: 10 Wednesdays; January 27 to March 31, 2010

Time: 1:15-2pm

Location: Room 7

Grades: 1 - 4

Tuition: $90, payable to Mittie Cuetara

Kid's Book, Comic book and Magazine Making Class!

In this class, we'll develop our ideas in a longer format, creating one long story, or multiple stories under one umbrella format of book, magazine or comic. We'll brainstorm ideas, create story layouts, ink and color, and end up with a masterpiece. You might even surprise yourself. Each semester will have new book projects to keep the artists engaged!
